

Figure S1. Progressive decline symptoms observed on Alnus glutinosa trees in the investigated sites (a-c); black exudates oozing from stem cankers of declining trees (d), necrotic lesions of the inner bark on the stem (e).